Located in southern Lincoln county, the first Euro-American settler, Tilford Kutch, arrived in Cokeville in 1869. In 1873, he opened a trading post and ran a ferry across Smiths Fork. The railroad arrived in 1882, and was incorporated in 1910. Cokeville was named for the coal found in the area. In the early 1900s, sheep ranching became popular, reaching its peak in 1918, when Cokeville was informally called the "Sheep Capital of the World".
